Comments/Summary

The digital media content aligns with course objectives and is accurate and up-to-date. The quality of media elements, including images and videos, is high, maintaining consistency in style. The multimedia content ensures clear and audible audio.

Webpage

However, issues in accessibility and hierarchy were identified. The webpage needs proper hierarchy and alt text in the navigation, making it challenging for learners using screen readers. Additionally, a contrast issue in the footer could pose difficulties for visually impaired users. The issue may prevent learners from properly navigating the webpage.
